The Cocoa Bed combines timeless design with modern refinement. Featuring a double-stepped, notched profile upholstered in plush Silken Fog panels, the frame is accented by deep Cocoa wood trim for dramatic contrast. Resting on elegant tapered legs, this piece harmonizes tradition with modernity—creating a bedroom centerpiece that embodies both comfort and style.

Every detail, elevated.

Finish Spotlight

Cocoa, a warm medium brown oak finish that highlights the natural grain of the wood, offers a timeless and versatile foundation to the collection. Complementing this, select surfaces are embossed in a textured Cocoa finish, adding depth and a subtle organic element to the design. Together, the combination of smooth wood tones and woven texture creates a refined contrast that's both modern and grounded in natural materials.
