The Calypso collection provides a spectacular array of materials whose properties create a plethora of benefits. The Calypso features an antimicrobial mesh over the frame for unparalleled comfort and durability. It features our premium air, Poseidon, seat cushions; cutting edge technology of extruded polyethylene which allows water to pass through, while maintaining its structure, and providing excellent support. This design also allows for quick dry times, ensuring you can use your outdoor space without delay. The Alfresco Plus back cushions are filled with blown polyfiber to enhance the experience with luxurious, soft, and supportive comfort. It's been heat protected to further protect against the elements and contains channel casing to maintain even filling and shape. Each of these elements come together to form a durable, long-lasting piece of beautiful outdoor furniture that is low maintenance and maintains its sleek aesthetic through any outdoor conditions. Easy to clean, maintain, and refresh for the years of entertaining to come.
