The Vintage Trunk Story

Imagine ancient India.

Imagine heirlooms stored away for generations in beautiful iron strapped wooden dowry chests.

Imagine present day. Generations have passed, but the trunks remain, worn by weather, but still with a story to tell.

Imagine these old, discarded dowry chests recycled and restored for a new, eco-friendly generation.

Imagine.

Vintage - A Story of Reclamation and Restoration

There is a type of beauty only time can create.

An authenticity only nature can provide.

And a skill of restoration that only seasoned artisans possess.

Convention thinking does not create these Vintage masterpieces.

Craftsmanship and ingenuity do.

Old is the new “new”. Recycled and restored is the anthem for a new eco-friendly generation.

Each vintage piece is made of wood planks sourced and reclaimed from old ships and demolished buildings.

Each piece is as wonderfully unique as the customer who will treasure it.
