TAKE FIVE

Mid-Century Modern design captured the imagination of a post-war generation in the 1950's with its sweeping interpretation of contemporary living. The styling and designs have enjoyed such enduring appeal that they continue to shape high-end interior design today.

Take Five features a fresh interpretation of mid-century modern, styled in exotic Santos Rosewood and Zebrano veneers in a warm hazelnut finish. Designs are highlighted with accents of brushed brass, stainless steel, Carrara marble, polished acrylic, burnished gold leaf and a vibrant palette of fabrics.

The design aesthetic celebrates open living spaces, abundant natural light, rich colors and an elegant simplicity in styling. The look inspires self-expression in creating an environment that reflects your personal style, transporting the chic vibe and iconic lines of mid-century modern into a new millennium.

LIVING ROOM

Clean lines, open space, natural light and bold colors define mid-century modern design. This setting embodies that aesthetic, anchored by a beautifully tailored wood-trimmed sectional. Carrara marble on the cocktail table adds another material to the ensemble, as does the brass-plated stainless steel base on the end table. The result is a fresh statement of contemporary style.

The Barclay series offers a 2-piece sectional configuration as shown below, along with a 90-inch sofa shown on page 37, and a chair and ottoman on page 44. The silhouette features a wood-trimmed frame and button tufting on the seats and backs. The sectional comes standard with seven 18-inch Lux Down thrown pillows.

ANTIQUED BRASS AND METAL

- Maintain with regular dusting.
- Wipe up spills immediately.
- Clean with mild soap and water, dry thoroughly – do not use a brass cleaner (it will damage the lacquer)
